Welcome to York Music Camp!

A Program for Grade 9 - 12 Concert Band and Vocal Students

September 19 to 22, 2019

York Music Camp is a co-operative program of York Region schools and Camp Wahanowin. The primary objective of this camp is to promote musical excellence combined with exciting and fun camp activities.

The Camp

The camp will take place from Thursday September 19 to Sunday September 22, 2019 at Wahanowin Sports and Arts Centre near Orillia Ontario. Camper cabins have indoor washroom and shower facilities and a Dining Hall which overlooks the lake.

The Music Program

Campers will decide to perform in either a concert band or choir and then be assigned a major ensemble based on their age and performance experience. Students will attend rehearsals, sectionals and master classes taught by professional musicians and educators. Elective classes will include more specialized musical activities such as vocal ensemble, jazz band, small ensembles, as well as a regular selection of camp activities.

Camp Activities

Camp participants will have the opportunity to participate in typical camp activities including land sports, high ropes courses, archery, arts and crafts, evening campfires, games and social events. All camp activities are facilitated by qualified Camp Wahanowin staff and supervised by York Region teachers.

The Music Faculty and Staff

The music faculty is comprised of York Region music educators and professional musicians. The music staff is comprised of University students who are majoring in music and music education. Faculty and music staff provide large group, small ensemble and individual instruction as well as performances during evening program.

Fees and Registration

The 2019 camp fee is $393.00 which includes tuition, accommodation, meals and all activities. Optional costs are the YMC T-shirt or sweatshirt and confections that can be purchased at the tuck shop. Return bus transportation is not included in the camp fee. To register for the 2019 York Music Camp please submit to your music teacher a completed Camper Application and Information Form. Payment can be made through School Cash Online.

YMC Concert and Barbeque

On the last day of camp - Sunday September 22 at 11:30 am, there will be a Final Concert and Barbeque for parents and guests. It will be a wonderful opportunity for parents to see what can be achieved with four intensive days of rehearsal and instruction.

Transportation to and from Camp

Bus transportation to York Music Camp will be provided for all campers. Parents/Guardians are encouraged to provide transportation home following the YMC Concert. Return bus transportation will be provided at any extra cost of $40.
